

Do you know how your child's behavior is managed at school? At White's Tower we use a Positive Behavior Intervention and Supports (PBIS) to reward your child for positive behavior at school.

All of our kindergarten through 3rd grade classrooms use our Bearcat Clip Chart which enables students to clip up for good behavior and down for negative behavior throughout the day. At the end of the day students who end on Bronze, Silver or Gold receive a reward!

Our fourth grade teachers enforce PBIS through Class DOJO. They add points and take away DOJO Points based on student behavior. At the end of every day, students are given Bearcat Tickets for their number of points. The parents receive a weekly update on their child's percentage for the week and teachers add additional awards based on student percentages. Awards include things such as eating in the classroom, treasure box, changing their monster on DOJO or receiving a sticker. Students whose points fall below 70% will receive a phone call home.

In 5th Grade we follow the clip up/down system using the Bearcat clip chart. We give students 1 Bearcat ticket for ending the day on bronze, 2 Bearcat tickets for ending the day on Silver, and 3 Bearcat tickets for ending the day on Gold. In addition to this each of our 5th Grade classrooms run a Bearcat Ticket Store where student can buy various rewards using their earned Bearcat Tickets. Those rewards include things like Free Homework Pass, Choosing their Partner for the day, sitting next to a friend for the day, leading a class game or activity, Eat lunch with the teacher and a friend and many others like these. We also give classes Bearcat Pride Paws as whole class rewards. Once the class has earned all 25 paw prints the class may choose from a few rewards including lunch/movie in the classroom (if they save 5 parties they can do this for a whole week and watch a feature length movie), 15 mins of extra recess, crazy hair day, pj day or many other options.

All students at White's Tower have the opportunity to participate in our monthly school wide Bearcat Ticket store. Students can choose to buy items with their tickets or save their tickets for big ticket items.
